

Here I have spilled poop on the table. I will rinse off the table with water.

It does not matter if I get poop on the outside of the intestines, because they are designed by nature to be able to be washed clean of poop. If I got the poop on the white fat of the mesentery, however, I would throw that part of the mesentery out, because it will never wash out.