

Now, very slowly, I can peel the gall bladder off the liver. I use about the same amount of force as I use to peel clear packing tape off a roll.

Holding the gall bladder shut like a water balloon, I cut the top free.

I throw the gall bladder into the woods, as far from my meat as I can get it.