

This is the mesentery, attached to the large intestine. I carefully use my fingers and a knife to detach it.

I sniff the mesentery. I cut away any parts that smell like poop. I put the rest in the stock bucket. The fat of the mesentery will be good flavoring for soup stock.