

This is a stomach. It is full of chewed food. I want the stomach because I can stuff sausage in it and make a really big sausage.

This is the esophagus. It is where food enters the stomach.

I remove this loop of muscle from the stomach with a knife. I put the muscle in my stock bucket.